SPORTS DAY

NEW DATE

Tuesday 9th July - 1:30pm (Weather dependent)

Due to the Olympics taking place this year, we are theming our sports day around this.

Children have randomly been placed in 5 teams; each one named after one of the Olympic rings. Each ring is a different colour and represents one of the five most populated continents of the world.

Blue - Oceania   Black – Europe   Red – The Americas   Yellow – Africa   Green - Asia

Please check ClassDojo for the colour t-shirt needed for you child. All welcome to watch.

Broadbottom Elections!

This week, children had the opportunity to experience taking part in an election. Children chose their parties and created their own manifestos, encouraging peers to vote for them.

Photo identification cards were made to ensure everyone could vote!

The children took it very seriously, see below for photographs of our election.

Experiencing Democracy

As part of the process we mimicked the General Electoion, with year 6 adopting the roles of Poll Clerk, Returning Officer and Presiding Officer. Hustings took place prior to the vote and each child experienced a secret ballot.
